Header- logo, name

footer - logo, short nav links, short fake address, social media handles, copyright

Nav bar - home, about, login/signup, support page

Home page (landing page)- nav bar, car, search bar, video, testimonials, footer

About page - Information (how does it stand out), how does it work - video (screen record), wordings and images (mini car) to access the portal, referrals login/sign up- phone no. validation support page - FAQs,

Any other queries: first name, last name, mail address, phone no, student/preofessional, enter message.

Connect with us: linkedin, insta, fb, twitter

ADMIN AND USER LOGIN CHANGES

admin login - manually change status of the job and reflect the status in applied jobs page and maybe send an automated message after status change. admin views what jobs user has applied to.

contact button - admin can mail the user

----

user login:

Tailor your resume

After logging in:

2 buttons - my jobs (new - You haven't to applied to any jobs yet! add a graphic), my resume (generate/edit resume)

nav bar - match jobs, jobs applied, resume, profile, logout, notifications, resources notifications page-

display notifications add timestamp, recent ones displayed on top jobs applied- shows the job applied, company name, role, time add to calender, interview resources - display some info and show more to redirect resume pge - same profile page - same

logout - landing page

match jobs page- intially same, view jobs - apply button will redirect to simple form to apply add filters based on location, company, salary.

                              get referral button (beside apply button) - redirect to company linkedin page apply form (status bar 0 to 100%) - email address, country code, phone number , (next) resume, cover letter, additional qs - are you willing to do night shifts, transportation from/to the company, skills -> applied, send a notification to phone.

resources page - how to write an effective cover letter, how to find good internships, how to obtain a referral